

Reflection Rag

for Cello and F Instrument
Pure Duet Sheet Music
By Lars Christian Lundholm

The musical score is written for two staves in treble clef, with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The music is in 2/4 time. The score consists of six systems of two staves each. The first system starts with a measure number '9' at the beginning of the first staff. The second system starts with a measure number '13' at the beginning of the first staff. The third system starts with a measure number '17' at the beginning of the first staff. The fourth system includes first and second endings, marked with '1.' and '2.' above the staff. The fifth system ends with a double bar line and repeat dots. The sixth system continues the melody. The notation includes various note values, rests, and accidentals.

Reflection Rag for Cello and F Instrument

Composed in 1908 by Scott Joplin, this charming and syncopated ragtime was his last published ragtime a decade after it was composed. Most likely the sections were compiled after his death from 2 or more ragtimes and it resembles both Peacherine Rag and Paragon Rag in mood and structure.
